Activity 1

Activity 2

3

16.12.24

US Parties

Use <http://tinyurl.com/yankj4uj> as a (very) simple reminder of the key policies.

Use the Republican and Democrat websites to update with current priorities in the lead up to the election.

Create profiles of key voters using the Pew Research Centre data.

<http://tinyurl.com/4kkdepyn>

<http://tinyurl.com/32ryr2b8>

Plan an answer to the following question:
Evaluate the view that the Democratic Party is more internally divided than the Republican Party.

Party comparison

Complete a table/Venn/mind-map to compare the Republicans, Democrats, Conservatives and Labour.

Focus on policy themes rather than specific policies eg. More hawkish on foreign policy, progressive social attitudes.

Plan the following 12 makers and write one of them:

Examine the factors that create a two-party dominance both in the US and in the UK.

Analyse the differences in party unity in the US and in the UK.

*Remember that for the second one you'll need to include comparative theories.

This article is an old, but useful comparison:

US Congress

2023-13C-Gp1 - 2. Congress - All Documents \(sharepoint.com\) Use this chapter for key terminology and concepts

Use Congress website to see what they are currently debating/proposed bills
<https://www.congress.gov/>

Make sure you have examples of key legislation for recent presidents and their relationship with Congress. Split your work into the different functions of Congress and examples in each.

Make sure you include the work of:

- Both chambers
- Any standing committees
- Any oversight committees
- Examples of recent pork barrelling
- Current Speakers, party leaders

UK Parliament

2023-13C-Gp1 - 6. Parliament.pdf - All Documents \(sharepoint.com\) Use this chapter for key sections of UK parliament.

Use Parliament website to get up-to-date examples <https://www.parliament.uk>

Split your work into the different functions of parliament – legislative, holding exec to account, representation - and have a judgement on the effectiveness of each section

Make sure you include the work of:

- The Public Accounts Committee
- The Departmental Select Committees
- Liaison Committee
- The House of Lords
- Any backbench rebellions

Activity 2

Liberalism

Watch <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=GKKEMgn2w8Y> and complete the activities along with the video.

Make a comparison table of the key themes of liberalism and where the classical and modern liberals agree and disagree.

You also need to know how classical and modern liberals view the state, economy, society and human nature.

Make a timeline of the key thinkers and where they fit with the different strands of liberalism. Learn a quote to go with each one.

Aiming for an A/A*? Read this: Runciman-Wollstonecraft.pdf

Plan a liberalism essay from the end of the ideologies spec

Spec and essay Qs.docx

US presidency

2023-13C-Gp1 - 3. The Presidency.pdf - All Documents \(sharepoint.com\)

Use this chapter for key terminology and concepts.

Make sure you include:

- Formal powers
- Vice president
- Cabinet and EXOP
- Relations with Congress
- Direct authority
- Theories and limitations on power

Compare the powers and restrictions of US presidents and UK prime ministers. Refer to case studies on presidents for examples (as per the handouts you all did)

Answer comparison question 1 from section A and question 2 from section B p. 49 – both 12 marks

Watch:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=5l02sK5LovI>

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=fnHb-zyWh14>

Plan an answer to:

Evaluate the statement 'Weak at home, strong abroad' with regard to powers of the American president [30]

Conservatism

Watch <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=aV7COJJDjbE> and complete the activities along with the video.

Make a comparison table of the key themes of conservatism and where the different strands agree and disagree (Traditional, One Nation, New-Right)

You also need to know how the different strands view the state, economy, society and human nature.

UK elections and referendums

Make sure you are confident with how FPTP, AMS, SV and STV work. You also need to know results of elections that use them.

SV: <https://www.londonelects.org.uk/> (also useful for AMS in Greater London Assembly)

AMS: Scottish Election results 2021.pdf

STV: <https://www.bbc.co.uk/news/election/2022/northern-ireland/results>

Please remember that as of 2023 SV is no-longer used in Mayoral elections!

Activity 1

Activity 2

18

5.05.25

Read the most recent Politics Review. Use it to update your examples. Pick at least two of the articles to read in depth, completing the activities at the end.

Try to select articles and activities that address the gaps that you identified in week 17. Ask Mrs Allen or Mrs Tillotson for the most recent copies.

19

12.05.25

Talk to people at home about recent political events.

Use the key words from the specification and develop your confidence using them.

Pose controversial questions and be prepared to justify your case. Use evidence to support your arguments and fully develop your reasoning. Your family members should be convinced by the strength of your argument.

This will help to develop your AO1 (knowledge), AO2 (analysis) and AO3 (evaluation).
