Practise your IRP – make sure it's 2 minutes maximum and you have learnt it off by heart. Make sure you sound natural and spontaneous when you give your presentation (not like you're reading something!)</li> <li>2. Prepare answers to questions you think you might be asked – look at the list of articles you gave on your form. Use flashcards to do this – write the question in French on one side of the flashcard, and the answer in French on the other side. Make sure your answers are detailed, developed, include statistics and complex structures</li> </ol>

5 13.01.25	Mock Speaking Exam around this time Choose some past paper speaking cards from the link below (all are Year 13 topics). Set yourself a timer, make sure your answers to the questions are detailed, developed, and use complex structures. Remember to ask a question! https://REQEWF.exampro.net	Same as above.
6 20.01.25	Choose a translation (English into French) task to complete from the link – there is a range of topics from across the Year 12 and Year 13 course. When you mark your work, try to work out which grammar rules you missed so that you can remember this next time and not make the same mistake. E.g. Was it adjective agreement? Verb conjugation? Or, was it vocabulary you didn't know? Write down the words that got in the way and learn them off by heart. https://HOTEVOL.exampro.net	Complete the listening tasks – there is a range of topics from across the Year 12 and Year 13 course. https://YYJUFEY.exampro.net
7 27.01.25	Choose a gap-fill task to complete from the link. Remember to apply your grammar knowledge when choosing the correct word – e.g. do you need a noun/adjective/verb/what gender? When you mark your work, try to work out why you got the answer wrong – what grammar rule did you forget? https://LUCONUL.exampro.net	Choose a topic from Year 12 and practise the vocabulary – use either Memrise (first link) or Quizlet (second link) https://community-courses.memrise.com/community/course/1534717/aqa-a-level-french-year-1/ https://quizlet.com/user/alex_wish/folders/french-a-level-year-1
8 3.02.25	HH mocks around this time Choose a past paper question from Paper 2 on 'L'étranger'. Spend time planning your essay in detail before writing it. Remember to include essay language/debate phrases to introduce each paragraph/your arguments. Use quotes from the book, use several complex structures and make sure your points are analytical. Afterwards, look at the mark scheme to see how many relevant points you made. https://UIIOIUU.exampro.net	Complete these reading past paper questions, where you need to write sentences rather than multiple choice answers. When marking, write down a list of the words you didn't recognise which would have scored you more marks, and learn these words off by heart. https://YAYCAL.exampro.net
